

Parenting Resources

All Ages

Birds & Bees

The talk is overated. Kids are supposed to be curious and ask questions, that's part of healthy child development. Of course, just because it's normal doesn't mean it's easy to answer them! Birds & Bees offers simple, practical strategies to help you tackle the talk and become the loving authority on this topic.

Family Discipleship Podcast: Talking With Your Kids About LGBTQIA+

This podcast speaks about what culture is teaching kids about LGBTQ+ and what we as Christian parents should teach our kids.

Axis.org

Axis seeks to see all caring adults equipped with the conversation, discipleship, and culture translation skills needed to reach the next generation for Christ. They invite you to learn more about the resources Axis offers to equip you for conversations with your teens. Build your teen's lifelong faith in Jesus by tackling tough topics together, one conversation at a time.

Students

10 Questions Every Teen Should Ask \(and Answer\) about Christianity

Backed by state-of-the-art research, personal stories, and careful biblical study, this book doesn't dodge tough questions. Instead, it invites teenagers to ask their hardest questions about Christianity and to find surprising, life-giving answers.

Passport2Purity

The Passport2 resources were designed to help your preteen or teen develop a rich understanding of who God made them to be. Build heart-to-heart communication between you and your preteen while laying a foundation of purity that will prepare them for the turbulent years ahead.

Watermark DTown Breakout: We Still Believe Caitlyn Jenner is a Man

This breakout from Watermark Community Church is for students, and is dedicated to presenting a biblical worldview of sex, gender identity and marriage.

